Roseland, La., Feb. 14, 1916.

Dear Sir:—Last year I bought of you about 175 4 to 5 feet pecan trees, all of which are alive but five.

Respectfully,
C. A. TIEBOUT.

Atlanta, Ga. Feb. 15th, 1916.

Dear Sir:—I want to thank you for sending such good pecan trees in respect of both size and quality. Your careful preparation of the trees for shipment makes future growth more probable. I do not see how you could afford to make your price any less.

Yours truly,
V. W. THOMPSON.
